Khalil J. Williams, Bachelor of Arts, Political Science.
May 23, 1998-May 11, 2025

Khalil Julian Williams was a gifted scholar, compassionate leader, and visionary cofounder of Millionaire Mind Kids. From an early age, his brilliance shone—advancing from kindergarten to first grade in just two weeks and earning the Presidential Education Award for Outstanding Academic Excellence in 2008, signed by President George W. Bush. He continued to excel, graduating from middle school with another Presidential Education Award in 2011, signed by President Barack Obama.

At Apple Valley High School, Khalil graduated with highest honors at the age of 17, earning a full-ride scholarship to the University of California, San Diego, and becoming UCSD's Chancellor's Associate Scholar. His achievements included the Highest GPA Award and multiple Future Farmers of America Honor Roll Awards, reflecting both his intellect and his leadership.

Remarkably, at just seven years old, Khalil co-founded Millionaire Mind Kids alongside his sister and grandmother. Together, they built an educational nonprofit that has impacted thousands of families, opening doors to STEM, aviation, finance, and college pathways. His generosity, curiosity, and radiant spirit carried through every endeavor—from raising funds for fellow students to embracing global cultures while studying abroad.

As he endured personal challenges, Khalil clung to his grandmother's enduring words of encouragement:

"I give you wings of an eagle, to soar effortlessly and high across the skies, as every creature looks up in wonder of your ease and grace, knowing you will never need to lower to ask a hummingbird how to fly."

This scholarship honors Khalil's extraordinary legacy of academic excellence, compassion, and community uplift. Recipients are called to pursue knowledge with passion, serve others with heart, and uplift their communities with courage and vision.
